“Karen’s style is at times traditional, then moves surprisingly at a tangent, making it more interesting in an unexpected way. And her whistle playing is excellent” Irish Edition, PA

“Oorts...is an exceptionally versatile Belgian musicians and scholar” The Washington Post

The May 6th concert with Karen Ashbrook and Paul Oorts will feature a musical travelogue around Europe of traditional music with fascinating historical tidbits.

The program includes:

- March van de Begijnen, musically visits that cloistered religious order that lived in places like Bruges.
- Bourrasque is a lighthearted Parisean musette waltz.
- You will be treated to contredanses and minuets from 18th and 19th century music manuscripts from Dance Masters in Flanders and Wallonia in Belgium that Dr. Oorts has extensively researched.
- Elegant court music named for English mansions, and old Irish harp tunes.
- Rollicking Spanish Celtic jigs! <http://karenashbrook.com> www.pauloorts.com
