Season celebration, for the whole family, brings in the new and your favorites classics every concert.

Simon Maurer, violin, grew up in Switzerland in a family of six children, all of whom became professional musicians. He studied music at the Conservatory in Biel, and continued his violin studies in the U.S. with Geoffrey Michaels and Joyce Robbins. Simon lives on a converted 20 acre YMCA camp, where he built his own 2000 square foot concert hall and enjoys the outdoors. A versatile pianist, violinist and conductor, Daniel Lau has served as Music Director for performances of Manon, Amahl and the Night Visitors, The Merry Widow, and The Magic Flute, among others. He is the chair of the music department at Washington Adventist Univ. Agnes Maurer, violist, is a native of France, where she studied the violin privately. At the age of sixteen, she joined the Ensemble Instrumental Andrée Colson, a professional chamber orchestra. In the United States she studied with Karen Tuttle, Kim Kashkashian and Geoffrey Michaels. As a versatile and dedicated educator Stephen Framil (DM, Indiana University) has given cello and chamber music master classes at the Shanghai Conservatory (China), Yong Siew Toh Conservatory (Singapore), University of Illinois (Champaign-Urbana), DePaul University (Chicago) & etc.. He has been an Assistant Professor of Music at Andrews University in Michigan. Li-Ly Chang, piano, Director of International Young Artist Piano Competition.
